Breadcrumb

- 1. Hogar
- 2. Print
- 3. Pdf
- 4. Node
- 5. Entity Print

Plant and Plant Product Imports

Last Modified:

APHIS regulates the import of agricultural commodities into the United States to protect the health and value of America's agriculture. These commodities include live plants, plant cuttings, seeds, cut flowers and greenery, fruits and vegetables, pest organisms, soil, wood products, and related items.

I Want To...

Use our guides below to make sure you're importing safely and legally and help the process go smoothly.

Import a plant or plant product into the United States

Ship a plant or plant product through the United States on its way to another country

Notify the United States of an incoming approved shipment of plants or plant products

As a traveler, bring plants or plant products into the mainland United States from Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or another country

Buy plants or seeds online

Sell plants or seeds online

Ship plants, food, and other agricultural products via express courier

Understand requirements followed by airport and airline caterers or retailers

Participate in the Offshore Greenhouse Certification Program

Import plants from Canada under the U.S.-Canada Greenhouse Grown Plant Certification Program

Participate in the Ralstonia Exclusion Program
Learn about treatment and certification requirements for wood packaging material
(WPM)

Get Help With an Importing Issue

- My shipment is on hold
- The plant I want to import is endangered

Need help with a different importing issue?

Visit Our Trade Contacts Directory
Print