

May 2022

| Date    | Number of Samples | Confirmed Positive Cages | Cumulative Program Samples |
|----------------|--------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| June 2021      | 120                      | 0                               | 23857                             |
| July 2021      | 110                      | 0                               | 23967                             |
| August 2021    | 122                      | 0                               | 24089                             |
| September 2021 | 99                       | 0                               | 24188                             |
| October 2021   | 84                       | 0                               | 24272                             |
| November 2021  | 89                       | 0                               | 24361                             |
| December 2021  | 80                       | 0                               | 24441                             |
| January 2022   | 80                       | 0                               | 24521                             |
| February 2022  | 90                       | 0                               | 24611                             |
| March 2022     | 98                       | 0                               | 24709                             |
| April 2022     | 69                       | 0                               | 24778                             |
| May 2022       | 55                       | 0                               | 24833                             |

There were 7 surveillance inspections conducted at 7 different sites for a total of 55 fish sampled this month. Samples are targeted to moribund and fresh mortalities when possible. The water temperatures continued to rise in response to the warmer air temperatures. All sites with fish in the water remained Category 1 and were scheduled for monthly sampling. Routine harvest continued and spring stocking began. No cages were confirmed positive this month.